50X1-HUM

1. Yugoslav authorities recently issued an order to all Peoples' Local Committees to submit immediately all available records on the following categories of military personnel:
 - a. Those with previous service in the German Army. Length of service, nature of duties, including relative dates and rank, are to be indicated.
 - b. All personnel formerly serving in the German Army, but who later joined the National Liberation Army. Relative dates and nature of their duties should be indicated.
 - c. All personnel who only served in the National Liberation Army.
2. The order also requested that the whereabouts and present occupation of these men be submitted. Further information was also requested on all auxiliary militia men who were drafted and assigned as reinforcements to border units or local army and Militia posts.

Comment: It has not been established whether the above order refers to all of Yugoslavia, or just to a small sector, that is, the Austrian border region.
